POLICY ON RESIDENT BOOK/LOUPE FUNDS
2015

The faculty of the EVMS Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery recognize the high cost of books and surgical loupes required for residents to satisfy the didactic and surgical training in the program.  In order to defray these costs, the department will purchase one major textbook of otolaryngology for each resident at the beginning of their general surgery year and one pair of surgical loupes for each resident at the conclusion of the requisite general surgery year (RI). The resident's choice of textbook must be approved by the Chairman or Program Director
